Cured His RUPTURE

I was badly ruptured while lifting a trunk several years ago. Doctors said my only hope of cure was an operation. Trusses did me no good. Finally I got hold of something that quickly and completely cured me. Years have passed and the rupture has never returned, although I am doing hard work as a carpenter. There was no operation, no loss of time, no trouble. I have nothing to sell, but will give full information about how you may find a complete cure without operation, if you write to me, Eugene M. Pullen, Carpenter, 515 Marcellus Avenue, Manassas, Va. I better cut out this notice and show it to any others who are ruptured—so you may save a life or at least stop the misery of rupture and the worry and danger of an operation.—Adv.

AMONG THE MUSICIANS

The Peabody Club of Washington, which is composed of members who have at some time studied at or graduated from the Peabody Conservatory in Baltimore, is planning a real winter's work, the chief attraction being a course of appreciation lectures to be held once a month. Any one who has studied at, or is attending the Peabody Conservatory, is invited to join the club.

Dr. William Stanfield announces the seventh twilight organ recital will be played Monday at 4:40 p. m. in the First Congregational Church, Tenth and G streets northwest. The assisting vocalist will be Warren W. Grimes, bass, of the National Cathedral Choir.

The program is as follows: Choral prelude, Festive March, "Nun Danket," Karg-Elert; "Kammen Oostrow," Rubinstein; Scherzo, Sonata No. 5, Gull-mant; vocal solo, "Where Ever You Walk," Handel; Elftentz, Bernard Johnson; "The Curfew," Horman; Fantasia on the "Vesper Hymn," Turpin; vocal solo, "Now Sleeps the Crimson Petal," Quilter; overture, "The Meistersinger," Wagner.

W. E. Braithwaite, tenor soloist and precentor at Gurley Memorial Presbyterian Church, will sing "Rejoice Ye Pure in Heart," by Bruno Huhn, at the morning service, and "Tell Me About the Savior," by Caro Roma, in the evening.

Miss Helen S. Edgar, contralto, will be the soloist at the meeting of the Wendell Wolf Chapter of the D. A. R. at the home of Mrs. R. A. Dilleat on Columbia road, Monday evening. Mrs. Edgar will sing "When the Boys Come Home," by Speake, and "His Buttons Are Marked U. S.," by Bond.

The afternoon music at the Church of the Covenant, by the Triple Quartet, will be as follows: Anthem, "They That Put Their Trust in the Lord" (Stearns); bass solo, "In the Land of Faded Day" (Danks); anthem, "The Shadows of the Evening Hours" (Nichol); incidental solo, Mr. Backing; "The Lord is My Strength" (Rogers); "Grant, We Beseech Thee" (Booth).

The evening choir of one hundred voices, with the double quartet and four additional soloists, will sing at the evening service. The following program has been arranged:

Organ prelude, "Angelus" (Gounod); "Oh Christ What Burdens Bowed Thy Head" (Knight); soprano, solo, "Oh, Saviour of the World" (Buck), Miss Craig; "Thine for Ever, God of Love" (Price), incidental solos, Miss Craig and Mrs. Dunwoody; "Now, When the Dusky Shades of Night" (Berwald); organ postlude, "Festival" (D'Acosta).

The Washington College of Music will give a concert at Gurley Memorial Presbyterian Church, Fourteenth street and Meridian place, Wednesday evening, November 22, for the benefit of the church. This is the third year the college has given this church a recital, and the program promises to be an exceptionally good one.

A most interesting talk by Mme. Von Unschuld on "The Tools of Piano Technique," given in connection with a recital by members of the Von Unschuld Club, was greatly enjoyed by an appreciative audience on Wednesday last.

Great enthusiasm prevails and much interest evinced in the work of the Washington Oratorio Society this year. New members are cordially invited to be present at the rehearsals, which are held every Monday evening in the Chapel of the Covenant Church at 8 o'clock.

The Washington Society of Fine Arts announces a course of five lecture recitals of the most modern songs by Nicholas

At St. John's Church, Georgetown Parish, today, the musical portion of the service, under the direction of Samuel A. Leech, will be as follows: "Te Deum" in E flat, by Woodward; "Jubilate Deo" in C, by Buck; "How Lovely Are the Messengers," from "St. Paul," by Whitely Allen; "In the Wilderness," Coenen; Mrs. A. L. Haycock; Dubois; "Abide With Me," Shelley; Organ Postlude; "Festival Prelude"—Flagger.

The Students' Club of the Washington College of Music held its second meeting at the college last Wednesday, when a most enjoyable program was given.

Te Cecilia Concert Company, under the personal management of Gertrude Lyons, furnished the entertainment for the "ladies' night" of La Fayette Lodge, No. 13, F. A. A. M. in the ball room of the Raleigh Hotel on Wednesday evening. The following program was given: Hawaiian duo, "Aloha No An Iko Make," and "On the Beach at Waikiki;" violin solo, "Souvenir;" soprano solo, "Delight;" descriptive waltz song interpreted by a rhythmic dance, being the first appearance in Washington of a new production; cello solo, "Remember;" character songs; harp solo, "Patrouille;" soprano solo, "Serenade," by Gounod, accompanied by violin, cello, harp and piano. Members of the company participating were Gertrude Lyons, soprano and manager; Ruth Brown, violinist; Kathryn Riggs, harpist; Paul Ramadell, cellist; Arthur Pierce, character songs; Kahalekale Gilman, a native Hawaiian, and William Barrett, Hawaiian duo; Mrs. Charles Brooks-Smith, accompanist. The company was assisted by Charlotte Louise Hogan, of Studio Hall, interpretive and rhythmic dancer. A special feature of this program was the waltz song

William Stanfield, organist and choir director, of the First Congregational Church, has arranged the following musical program for tomorrow:

11 a. m.—Organ prelude, Consolation in E, Liszt; anthem, bass solo and chorus, "A New Heaven and a New Earth" (The Holy City), Gaul; offertory anthem, "The King of Love," Shelley; incidental solos, Miss Larner and Mr. Humphrey; organ postlude, "Cujus Animam," Rossini.

8 p. m.—Organ prelude, Evensong, Johnson; anthem, "Send Out Thy Light," Gounod; offertory, quartet, "The Homeland, O the Homeland," Sullivan; organ postlude, Festival Prelude on Ein Feste Burg, Faulke.

Mrs. Josephine Barnhill, pupil of the late Prof. Ambrose Hurcum, the well-known Welsh singer, will be the soloist at the Soldiers' Home concert this evening.

Mrs. Barnhill is of Welsh and Italian ancestry and her repertoire abounds in the quaint old folk-songs of the British Isles, modern French songs and florid selections of the Italian school.

Mrs. Barnhill is deeply interested in literature and has contributed many articles on ethical and philosophical subjects to American and English journals. Mrs. Barnhill first came to this country two years ago from Wales.

Due largely to the energy and ingenuity of Mrs. Charlotte R. Farrington, the cabaret concert at the Arts Club on election night was a huge success. The program was carried and interesting; the decorations of the rooms were quite as they should be at such a club. Posters hanging about the walls told who the artists on the program were, but it was suggested that they indicated clearly what the artists were not, from the fact that Ada Arundel Pillow was pictured as thin and red-headed; Louis Thompson as "True as Steel," and C. W. O'Connor as a Dutchman.

Miss Alward Casanman, of Studio Hall School, acted as accompanist.

TEACHERS' RETIREMENT LAW TO BE ADVOCATED

Both the executive branches and the entire teaching force of the white schools of the District will attend a mass meeting in the Central High School auditorium on Tuesday, November 22, for the preparation and discussion of a teachers' retirement law.

The meeting, under auspices of the High School Teachers' Union, has the sanction of Superintendent Ernest L. Thurston and Dr. J. G. Van Schaick, president of the Board of Education, both of whom are scheduled for addresses.

Mrs. Ida L. Fursman, of Chicago, recently dismissed for being connected with labor unions, will be among the speakers. She will be attending the American Federation of Labor convention in Baltimore and has consented to attend the meeting.

Some of the topics for discussion will be "A School Pension Law," "The Teacher's Part in the School System," and "Team Work and Organization."

RAIL RATES CUT FOR CONFEDERATE REUNION

A one-cent-a-mile passenger rate from all points in the South is expected to bring to Washington one of the greatest crowds in its history for the twenty-seventh reunion of the United Confederate Veterans and the twenty-second annual reunion of the Sons of Veterans.

This announcement was made at a recent meeting of the finance committee which is raising the funds for entertaining the veterans, their sons, sweethearts and others on that occasion.

H. P. Cary, general passenger agent of the Southern Railway, chairman of the finance committee, announced that at a recent meeting of railroad officials a one-cent fare per mile each way had been agreed upon as a patriotic anti-semitic gesture on the part of the Confederate Veterans and that in making this arrangement the railroads were actually putting into effect a rate less than cost.

Turkey's celebration of victories is said to be done by order of the police, a heavy fine being the penalty for not putting up the flag when one is told to do so.
